

PUBLIC LEADER

MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN.

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 1893.

ONE CENT.

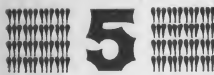

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "odds" free any more than a merchant can take over his customer's free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a valuable business medium, and its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisement should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

JUST

MORE DAYS

To buy the best Clothing sold in the state at 25 per cent. less than the regular price. While we enjoyed an immense trade the past week, our stock was so large that in most lots we have several suits, however, of our choicest suits that sizes are badly broken. If we can fit you in these the price will be the smallest matter in them.

Special Reduction On Our Finest Overcoats.

We refer to our finest patent Beaver Camel's Hair and Tan Melton DRESS OVERCOATS, garments that are worth $22.50, $25 and $30—none like them in the state. Until Saturday night, January 1st, you can take choice of them for $15.00

We have a few of our fine SMOKE-JACKETS left, (they will make new Year's gifts) regular price $7.50 to $10. You can take choice for $6.50. This is less than manufacturer's price, but we do not want to carry them over.

All of this week until Saturday night we will give a special discount on our $4, $5, $6, $7 and $8 SHOES.

HECHINGER & CO

LEADERS IN FINE CLOTHING AND SHOES.

During this sale no goods will be sent out on approval, nor will any be charged; please don't ask us to.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEADER, Telephone 35, and send it in.

Mordcael Wells of Mr. Olcott draws a pension of $72 a month.

Teeth extracted without pain Dr. J. W. Carmichael, over Harry Taylor's, Phone 60.

The C. and O. has leased from the Pullman Palace Car Company 1,000 coaches, for which it is to pay 10 per cent. cash and for thirty-six consecutive months it is to pay $11,457.50, or a total of $457,100. When all payments have been made and all provisions complied with, the cars become the property of the C. and O. Company.

Mr. Robert Alexander Group and Miss Leslie Lynch Hoffman will be married Saturday evening, January 15th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Hoffman of Crescent Hill, Louisville. The Rev. E. L. Powell will officiate. The attendants will be Misses Myra and Mollie Spaulding of Covington, Miss Mary Elizabeth Spaulding of Louisville, Messrs. Horace Williams of Covington, James Hebdon and William Winstanley. Miss Eppie Campbell Hoff, sister of the bride, will be Maid of Honor. Mr. J. R. Winstanley will be the best man.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamers—TAI: Blue—RAIN or SNOW: With Snow above—(will) WARMER grow.

(Black) FROST—(Golden)—will be: Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see

The above forecasts are made for the next 24 hours, ending at 11 o'clock tomorrow evening.

The Mayville Assembly was reorganized last evening with the very best young men in the city at the head of the institution. The LEADER will tomorrow print the Constitution of the new body.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph Wallington will take place from his late residence, No. 24 East Third street, at 1 o'clock this afternoon, with services by the Rev. J. C. Phillips of the Central Presbyterian Church.

Dr. J. H. Samuel, returned a few days ago from Florida, brought The LEADER a novel paper-weight. It is handsome, and who says it oughtn't to be when it's a Spangas, an animal of the genus pedicellata echinodermata.

Mr. Walter Blattman writes to The LEADER from St. Louis that on Saturday afternoon he heard Dr. George M. Phillips, formerly of this city, deliver a lecture before a class of 618 students at Barnes Medical College, one of the best in the country. Dr. Phillips is Professor of Surgery in that institution.

Mr. Elisha Berry of this place says he never had anything so hot so much good and give such quick relief from rheumatism as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He was bothered greatly with shooting pains from hip to knee until he used this liniment, which afforded prompt relief. B. F. BAXTER, druggist, St. Paul, Ohio. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

SAVED HIM NIGHT.

He criticised her pudding, and he didn't like the cake; he wished she had made the blouet his mother used to make; she didn't wash the dishes and she didn't make a stew, and she didn't send his stockings as his mother used to do. Oh, well, she wasn't perfect, but she tried to do her best, until at length she thought the time had come for her to have a rest; so one day when he grumbled and whined the whole day through, she turned him up and "fanned" his pants—as his mother used to do.

Notwithstanding the liberal use of The LEADER's columns by wide awake advertisers it still gives more reading matter than any other Mayville paper. Compare it with others and see for yourself.

W. B. GARR, M. W. R. H. Wallace, Recorder.

One thing that attracts many people to Cincinnati to buy goods in the bargains that Cincinnati merchants advertise in the Cincinnati papers. Maybe Mayville merchants might keep some of this trade in Mayville if they would advertise bargains in the Mayville papers. Suppose you try THE LEADER.

Mr. W. E. Hamilton and bride of Augusta were yesterday visitors in this city. Tickets from Augusta to Mayville had been furnished Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton by Mr. John I. Winter, the bustling Furniture Dealer, who in this way furnished them to come to his store and look over his complete stock, which in selling meant the purchase of a household outfit.

The result was that goods to the amount of $108.50 were sold, besides Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton remaining in the city to buy china, etc., articles not handled by Mr. Winter. So much for the beginning of the business career of Mr. Winter in this city.

Dr. John Hall has resigned the Pastorate of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, after forty-eight years service.

J. Kimble, aged 71, Vice-President of the Manchester Store Company, was married Sunday night to Mrs. Elizabeth Warner. This is the third adventure for each on the matrimonial sea.

NEWS NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAYS.

The Lizzie Bay will be the Pomeroy pocket tonight.

The Henry M. Stanley passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Virginia passed down last night from Pittsburgh and will return tonight for that port.

The river is rising its entire length, with 38 feet on the marks at this point. The tributaries above are pouring out immense volumes of water, which will make almost a 40-foot stage at Mayville.

Buck & Ehrhardt's wrecking boat, which went up to work on the Surberly, passed down Sunday night, towed by the Gate City. The boat left the Surberly Sunday and floated to Vanceburg, where it took shelter from the ice. All the loose material was taken off the wreck, which had been badly cut by the ice when the wreckers left. The wreck is in the middle of the stream, where it is struck by every floating object, and the wreckers think the present rise will finish the boat, the water being in her jaws when they left.

The stage of the Ohio river at Raymond yesterday was considerably over 10 feet, enough for coalboats. The Davidson Horner took out the largest tow. She had 8 boats and 6 barges, and added 6 more pieces at Belleaire. The Clipper had 7 barges and 1 boat. Coal City, 3 boats, 5 barges, 3 flats; Nellie Walton, 5 barges; Pacific, 8 boats, 4 barges, 1 flat; L. N. Buntion No. 2, 5 barges, 2 flats; George Shiras, 6 barges; Stella Moren, 5 barges; Mont Clair, 5 barges; Hawk, 6 barges; Volunteer, 5 barges, 1 flat. The Charles Clark is helping the Sam Brown up, which will be started back with a tow.

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

BALLENGER, Jeweler and Optician.

Captain D. C. Barrett, for many years one of the Editors of The Yeoman and later of The Capital, official state papers, died at Frankfort yesterday.

Fall in line at Nelson's store early Wednesday morning and secure your reserved seats for the Grecian Art Entertainment, to be given under Y. M. C. A. auspices at the Opera-house on Friday evening. Popular prices 50 and 35 cents; gallery 25 cents.

MODEL WILL.

One of the Shortest Ever Dug For Her in This County.

The will of the late Miss Eddie C. Hill was yesterday admitted to record. It is, in full, as follows:

MAYSVILLE, KY., March 12th, 1896. This is my will I want Mattie L. Lovel to have my share in the Hill House when I die. SIGNED C. Hill.

FORGER ARRESTED.

Constable Dawson Yesterday Taken in Vernon Wilson Near Reeterville.

Some time last fall Vernon Wilson, living at Lexington, Ill., forged nine checks on local parties, drew advances from an elevator company on an imaginary lot of corn, sold some farm stock that he didn't have, besides doing several other shady things.

Then he lit out and came here in October, taking up his home with Mr. Ed Henderson on Cabin creek, who is his wife's uncle.

Yesterday Constable Jesse Glosion of Lexington came after him, and securing the services of Constable W. B. Dawson the latter arrested Wilson near Reeterville.

This morning Officer Glosion left for Illinois with his prisoner on the 5:30 train.

Don't fail to place your "ad" in THE LEADER if you want the most for your money.

Hugh H. Mann, a pioneer of St. Louis, is dead, aged 78. He was born in Philadelphia, and was a gold seeker in California in '49. Returning to St. Louis, he engaged in the foundry business and removed to Cairo during the War and built all the gunboats for the Government run on the Mississippi river.

Engineer Jeremiah O'Brien was taken off the engine coal in death, his hand clutching the throttle, which pulled the C. and O. express into Wilmington, Del., a few days ago. He was stricken with apoplexy about fifty miles below that city. Fireman William Brady discovered he was dead fifteen miles below the city. The train was running forty miles an hour when he died.

When You Have a Bad Cold, you want the best medicine that can be obtained, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You want a remedy that will not only give quick relief but effect a permanent cure.

You want a remedy that will relieve the lungs and keep a perspiration easy.

You want a remedy that will counteract any tendency toward pneumonia.

You want a remedy that is pleasant and safe to take.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only medicine in use that meets all of these requirements. This remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds throughout the United States and in many foreign countries. It has many rivals, but for the speedy and permanent cure of bad colds stands without a peer, and its splendid qualities are everywhere admired and praised. For sale by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

SILK SHIRT WAISTS

The woman who has more silk waists than she can use is yet to be found. Nothing so beautifully completes the tailor-made suit of jacket and skirt, nothing gives such pleasant and economical variety to one's dress. The last of a dozen handsome taffeta silk waists were marked at a burry price. The colors—cardinal, navy, black. All made with yoke backs, blouse fronts and lined throughout. $1.50 instead of $3.50. A Tuesday wonder not likely to last the dozen out. Store? No; ends ends.

CORSETS.

Those old laces of corsets marked down to 75c. are going, but not fast enough. Now, either you don't want a corset at any price or you don't understand what a great big $1 worth we're giving. Maybe you'll buy for future use though, as we're going to sell them now for 50c. Not all sizes.

SILKALINES.

Draperies, cushions, etc., bear an important relation to interior cheerfulness of the home. Small money may brighten a whole apartment. New stuffs just received. Pretty in silk and prettier. 10c, 12c.

NECKWEAR.

The new Windsor Net Scarf fashionable femininity now finds so fascinating. All lace trimmed. 50c and 30c, instead of 50c and 60c.

D. HUNT & SON.

THE SECOND TIME

Gov. Asa Bushnell Reinaugurated as Governor of Ohio.

Many Thousands of Visitors in the Capital of the State.

The Oath of Office Administered by Chief Justice Burdett, the Supreme Court Building.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 11.—The weather here Monday was about as bad as it could be for an inauguration. The streets were covered with muddy slush, which the city fire department made vain attempts to wash off, and a heavy mist, with the temperature not far above the freezing point, completed the unfavorable condition of elements, and helped to add to the unpleasantness of Gov. Bushnell's second inauguration.

The probability of trouble and unusual scenes, however, brought great crowds to the city, to tramp about in this miserable slush, mud and mist. By ten o'clock the city streets were well filled with strangers.

Probably never before was so large a crowd called to Columbus on the occasion of an inauguration when so little demonstration in connection with the inauguration was made.

The intense interest in the senatorial situation, the call of Judge Nash for a mass meeting of the Hanna republicans, and the expected indignities upon Gov. Bushnell's part in the senatorial election, conspired to swell the attendance far beyond the usual proportions.

The falling off in the attendance of military and civic organizations was more than compensated by the large numbers of people who simply came to see the developments of the inauguration, and to take part in the mass meeting of the republicans.

The influence of Senator Hanna and his friends was used to keep military and political clubs away from the governor's inauguration or not. It is known that many of these organizations had arranged to come to the inauguration, but they were not permitted to do so.

The citizens of Columbus furnished quarters and meals for visiting military organizations at the auditorium on Goodale street. There dinner was served to the members at 11:30 a. m., at which they might be absent for the long march.

All organizations taking part in the parade reported on time, and the parade moved on directly after the ceremonies.

Gov. Bushnell's first term ended at high noon, and presently at that hour the oath of office for his second term was administered to him by Chief Justice E. Burdett, of the supreme court.

Both the senate and house held short sessions Monday morning. The platform for the inauguration was placed this time on the north side of the rotunda of the capitol, blocking the great archway leading to the senate wing.

Gov. Bushnell's inaugural address, in part, was as follows:

Having again been called as the chief executive of my beloved state, I have accepted the trust recently, hopefully, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism of a small population, widely scattered, but united in her march of progress, a sure triumph over all obstacles as the advance of a good and noble republic.

In considering the future with its hopes and promises, its aims and ambitions, its purposes and its processes, if a good result has been attained by those who have labored and if those of the present are striving to maintain the record, it is equally incumbent upon all who will serve the state and people to do their part. By no legislative and acting for the people to secure the results with the least possible friction, much and due to make the general record of commerce and more satisfying.

I wish you all good results in your endeavor to constitute Ohio's success, for such I hope your purpose will be. The duty may be difficult, but I am sure the result will be commensurate to the magnitude.

Remember the glorious past of Ohio and her prestige in this availing of her century of history, and not worthy for the future, which she contains so much good and evil for the future.

For myself it will be my purpose to act advisedly and fairly in all things, to be devoted to the duty over the whole people, and to spend my best energies to the work of the state placed in my hands with honesty and fidelity.

For this which I have done in the past in this service, you and your fellow men must thank me. Let me say, however, that I have been my sincere endeavor to discharge the duties of my high office in such a manner as to produce the best results possible under the circumstances.

An experience of two years has taught me that the administration of the duties of chief executive of this state is a task of heavy responsibilities, and that there is an extended field for exertion and effort. In the second term of office with more confidence than I had two years ago, I have been able to gain familiarity with the details have given me a gliding light. But to me the honor conferred shall appear as a sacred trust, and as the beginning, I must first invoke the aid of the supreme Being and his grace, the fortitude and good will of my fellow men.

This concluded the inauguration of Gov. Bushnell, and the ceremony of the Lieut. Gov. Jones and the senators to the senate chamber, where the oath of office was administered to them by Judge Burdett. Gov. Jones made a short speech to the senators upon taking his seat for the second term.

IN CONGRESS.

Hawaiian Treaty Taken Up in the Senate Civil Service Debate Continued in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—SENATE.—In accordance with its previous course, Senate 100's chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, brought up for consideration the Hawaiian agreement treaty in the senate Monday. His motion was made after the dispatch of routine morning business and the entire remainder of the day's session, except the last hour, was devoted to the consideration of the Hawaiian treaty. The committee report was considered in open session or behind closed doors in executive session. After a debate of almost two hours upon this point, an informal vote was taken, the ayes being 18 and the nays 12. The debate was overhauled by a senatorial vote.

HOUSE.—The opponents of the civil service law had much the best of the debate in the house Monday so far as the number of those opposing it was concerned. Nine of the eleven speakers were of the opposition. The friends of the law were very anxious to get further debate and in this will have the opportunity to speak before the committee.

The Hon E Kenton will soon leave for the Continent on an extended visit to Mexico and the West, and will in all probability extend his visit around the world, going by way of the Hawaiian Islands. Mr Kenton has not visited Mexico since he was there carrying a musket for Uncle Sam, and anticipates the visit with much pleasure.
